Cycle lane is putting riders at risk, claim

A controversial cycle lane created around a busy Halesowen traffic island is putting both bike users and drivers at risk, it was claimed as calls were renewed for it to be removed.

Markings were put around the island in Shell Corner earlier this year by Dudley Council to make it easier for cyclists. But Stourbridge Bicycle Users' Group, better known as Stourbug, say it has had the reverse effect as the lane takes bikes closer to the path of cars as they are leaving the roundabout.

Drivers may also not see them straight away as they go around the island, creating a further risk of an accident taking place, according to the group.

Stourbug chairman Russell Eden said members had called for the lane to be removed before but so far nothing had happened. He said the matter would now be taken up with new Dudley Council transport boss Councillor Patrick Harley.

Preventing

Mr Eden continued: "This lane leaves cyclists vulnerable and increases the risk of accidents rather than preventing them, which we were told was the intention. This is just not the right development for this area and it needs to be removed at the earliest opportunity."

"We are asking for the council to take this action. In our view this has simply been a waste of money."

Council leader Councillor Les Jones said there were presently no plans to remove the lane.

"There was a situation where accidents were happening along this roundabout which is why it was decided to introduce the cycling zone," he said.

"People have spoken about the costs but frankly we are talking peanuts for this project. It is doing no harm being in place and may actually be helping the situation for both cyclists and motorists."

"I really can't see why there has been a problem with it."

But Councillor Jones admitted once the markings faded it was unlikely to be replaced because users did not want it.

First houses for 20 years

The first new council houses to be built in Dudley for 20 years will be advertised to new tenants within weeks.

The waiting list for a council house in the borough stands at just over 7,600 – including existing tenants looking to transfer to a new property. Work is well under way at five sites across the borough after the council secured £4.3 million from the Government's Homes and Communities Agency. The five sites include a 19-home development in Lower Gornal.

The former council garage site on Wood Road would be transformed with two, three and four-bedroom family houses and two-bedroom apartments.

A 22-home development is also being built on a former council-owned open space and garage plot on Norwood Road, Brockmoor. This includes the same type of housing as the Lower Gornal scheme.

Blackthorn Road, Wordsley, 20 homes will be built on a former garage and bungalow site. There will be two, three and four-bedroom family houses.

A six-property development is also being built on a former garage site on Tenacre Lane, Upper Gornal.

And a 13-property development is going on a garage site and former council compound on Woodland Avenue, Quarry Bank, including two-bedroom houses, bungalows and apartments.

Dudley Zoo will get £1.15m for a major revamp and to reopen famous chairlift

The zoo's old chairlift

A £1.15 million project to revamp Dudley Zoo's iconic wave entrance and bear pit and reopen its chairlift has been announced.

The popular attraction has been awarded funding from the Heritage Lottery Fund towards renovating four of its historic Tecton buildings.

They date back to 1937 and also include the Safari Shop and one of the kiosks.

The zoo has been awarded initial development funding of more than £123,000 for the three-year project.

Bosses now have up to two years to submit more detailed plans and apply for a full grant of just over £970,000. Work will begin next year, marking the 50th anniversary of the chairlift, which closed in 2000. The Tecton structures were designed and built between 1935 and 1937 using reinforced concrete, a pioneering system at the time.

Zoo chairman David Sparks OBE said: "These buildings are among the most significant in the history of modern architecture. People just do not realise how much today's world has been shaped by the concepts and techniques pioneered with these buildings in the 1930s."

In 2009, all 12 of the zoo's Modernist structures had received World Monuments Fund status and placed on a watch list alongside Machu Picchu and the Taj Mahal, ensuring a global focus on the world's largest single collection of Tecton buildings.

Zoo chief executive Peter Suddock said: "This is fantastic news."

Four-year-old tries to copy the family pet and ends up in a pickle

YOUNG RACHEL IN THE GATE ESCAPE

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

Four-year-old Rachel Warren thought she would be able to copy her pet dog by popping her head through bars of their front gate – but unlike the mutt she became trapped.

After frantically trying to pull her daughter free outside the family home on Fisher Street, Brierley Hill, her mother Carlene was forced to call in the fire brigade to rescue the youngster.

The drama unfolded as 31-year-old Carlene was preparing to take her daughter to nearby Hawbush Nursery at around 11 on Monday morning.

The youngster, who has a 15-year-old brother Matthew, had her reins on when she started playing and pretended to be the family's beloved pet dog.

Unfortunately she then stuck her head through the front gate – like the dog often does – and found her head was stuck between two bars.

Firefighter

Her mother says the fire brigade was on the scene within minutes and a firefighter was able to pull the gates open releasing Rachel.

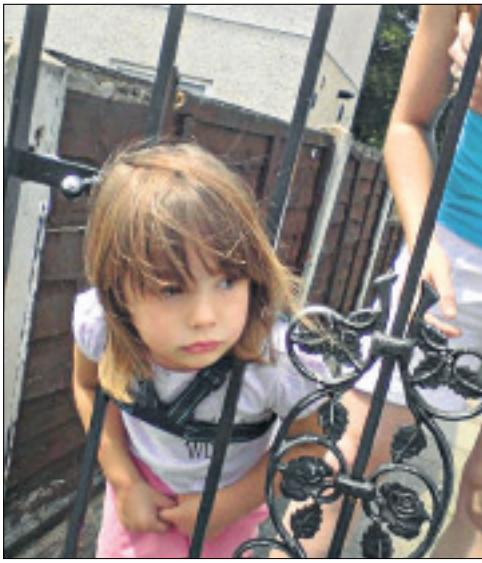

Afterwards the youngster was treated to a tour of the fire engine by firefighters who said they were impressed with how brave and calm she had been throughout her ordeal.

The youngster's father Wayne Warren, aged 33, said: "My wife said she was on her way to nursery and Rachel had her reins on when she started to run around pretending she was a dog. She poked her head through the gate but couldn't get it back out."

"My wife tried to pull her out but had to call the fire service. They let her sit in the fire engine afterwards."

Carlene added: "Rachel was a bit upset at first but she calmed down after I told her Fireman Sam was on his way."

Firefighter Richard Dunleavy, from Brierley Hill Fire Station, said they had thought they managed to free her without using any tools. He added: "She stayed very calm and we got her on the truck afterwards."

Bosses backing city bid

Business bosses have contacted the leader of Dudley Council to back the borough's bid to become a city.

Dudley is set to battle it out against 25 towns for city status as part of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations.

It was announced last year that one new city would be created to mark the Queen's 60 years on the throne. The decision to submit an application was made just a few days before the May 27 deadline by Dudley Council leader Les Jones.

Cabinet members backed the application during a meeting last week.

Council leader Les Jones said: "An opportunity like this comes once in a lifetime, who knows when it may happen again. We have a very proud history as an area. We have a lot to shout about."

"I have had letters of support from significant businessmen in the area and some have offered to write to the Government to show their support. I would actively encourage anyone in the borough to support the bid."

MP to meet the people

The MP for Halesowen and Rowley Regis will be visiting residents on their streets to find out about what is affecting them this weekend.

On July 9 between 2pm and 4pm James Morris will be on Regis Heath Road, Rowley Regis to speak to residents about any issues they want to raise.

Mamma Mia! Daughter tracks down real father

A Dudley father has been tracked down by the daughter he never knew he had – after a search that mirrored the plot of hit movie Mamma Mia.

Steve Phillips, aged 47, of Brierley Hill, was found by his 25-year-old daughter Fallan Kelly, who had wondered for years who her real dad was. Her mum Debbie, 45, wasn't certain.

She gave Fallan the names of her love interests from around the time her daughter was conceived.

She tracked down ex-boxer Steve who is now a builder, and the pair met.

A DNA test showed there was a 99.99 per cent chance he was her father.

She said: "He said I look so like his 20-year-old daughter Leanne that he knew it was true."

Scaffolding

Mr Phillips said he was working on scaffolding in Dudley at the time, and nearly fell off when he got the news.

When Fallan turned detective, she found she had three possible fathers.

One was ruled out, and then she got in touch with Steve.

Fallan, an office manager from Kent, has been welcomed into Steve's family by her dad's wife, Tracie and son Ryan, 17.

Steve said: "It's a complete shock and a lovely surprise. Our family is now complete."

In Mamma Mia, based on Abba songs, a young woman invites her mother's three former lovers to her wedding on a remote Greek island to find out which one is her real father.

Shop giving help to the heroes

A charity shop in Halesowen is supporting two good causes at once after launching a two-month fundraiser in aid of Help for Heroes.

Staff at the Sunbeams

Musical Trust store in High Street are selling raffle tickets to boost funds for the soldiers' charity. The shop opened 18 months ago to support the musical trust which provides therapeutic music sessions to youngsters and adults with special needs and disabilities.

Shop manager Katie Bennett said she had been inspired by a charity store in Chester that had held a raffle to help another good cause.

"We chose Help for Heroes because we keep reading in the news about these soldiers and what is happening in Iraq and Afghanistan and wanted to do something to help. We have lots of prizes to give away," she said.

Fun day date

A bouncy castle, a Punch and Judy show, donkey rides and a giant sandpit will be on offer at the Upper Gornal Fun Day. The event, on Saturday, will be at the Vale Street Recreation Centre, Upper Gornal, and will feature a DJ, barbecue, face-painting, and craft stalls. The event runs noon-4pm. Entry is free.

Sacking is ruled as fair

The nurse in charge of a Smethwick care home where residents were left in soaked beds and without drinks all night has lost a compensation claim for unfair dismissal.

Grace Simister, of Dudley, made her compensation claim at Birmingham Employment Tribunal against First Care (Smethwick) Ltd.

The firm runs Ash Lodge care home on Londonderry Lane, Smethwick.

Mr Mark Thompson, representing the firm, said Miss Simister was in charge on June 25, 2009, when residents were left in soaked sheets after their urine pads were not changed.

Other residents were left without drinks, while one dementia-suffering woman was left in a bed tilted, leaving her head and feet "scrunchied up". Potentially infected linen was not thrown away, the tribunal heard.

Miss Simister was sacked for gross misconduct. She said she was not given a chance by the management to give an explanation.

During cross-examination Mr Thompson accused Miss Simister of "passing the buck" and reminded her she admitted she would not have let a member of her family to have been left in such appalling conditions.

The tribunal earlier heard Miss Simister had been given a final written warning and had seven complaints made against her in two months before suspension and was dismissed in November 2009. The final warning followed disputes with staff member.

The tribunal ruled the claim for unfair dismissal be rejected.

Lottery cash plea gets go-ahead

A £2 million bid for improvements at a beauty spot will go ahead after a committee agreed money from two funds could be used to plug a £125,000 shortfall.

Dudley Council is set to start work on a second application to the Heritage Lottery Fund to secure nearly £3 million for the planned revamp work at Mary Stevens Park, Norton, Stourbridge.

But to meet the strict criteria, the authority has to prove it would be able to provide match funding of approximately £624,000.

Stourbridge Area Committee was told funding of £499,000 had been found from other budgets but the last £125,000 was still being sought.

Officers asked members if they would consider using cash put aside over the past few years from the committee's own capital allocation fund and from the Ernest Stevens Trust, a fund for work to the park.

The money has been saved as a back-up measure to ensure repairs to the park's grade-II listed gates goes ahead whether the bid is successful or not.

After a heated debate, members agreed the cash could be used if necessary – but only after assurances from committee member and council leader Les Jones that the cash would still be available if the bid was unsuccessful.

Councillor Jones told the committee: 'If the bid for this money from the Heritage Lottery Fund is unsuccessful we will still have this money. We are not spending anything.'

'This money would only be used if the bid is successful and in that case the gates would still be repaired. We are talking about throwing away a potential £2.6 million investment if we refuse this.'

The committee was told the Heritage Lottery Fund had already agreed to provide £116,100.

Charity shop raises £32,000

Staff at Black Country charity shop are celebrating after raising more than £32,000 during their first year.

The shop in Kent Street, Lower Gornal raises cash for the Georgina Unit at Russells Hall Hospital in Dudley.

It opened in April last year to support the unit which provides specialist treatment for leukaemia patients.

Since then it has raised more than £32,600. Shop manager Pauline Jenkins said: "The support we've had from the local community has been phenomenal. We are very grateful."

The charity is also celebrating a donation of £1,000 from the Oval and Tudor Newsletter group in Upper Gornal.

Meanwhile Sandwell Lions Club International have donated a 32-inch television for the waiting area in the Georgina Unit.

Anglers from across the region are heading back to Dudley's designated fishing reserves for the start of the season.

Permits for the two sites, located at Himley Hall and Fens Pool Nature Reserve, are now available.

Himley's pool is open from 7am to 6pm every day and offers the chance to fish for trench, carp, roach, perch, bream and pike.

Primarily a nature reserve, Fens Pool is also a well established angling site. Its three large pools and adjoining canal have excellent fish stocks, including pike and carp.

Environment chief Counsellor David Stanley, said: "Angling is a time-honoured hobby for many of our residents and we are very proud of our two fantastic fishing sites."

"Residents are reminded that fishing is only permitted in the two designated reserves and that a permit is required for anyone who wishes to use them."

Service hits all national targets

West Midlands Ambulance Service has welcomed a new report which shows the trust is achieving all four of the national performance standards despite it being the organisation's busiest year on record.

According to the NHS Information Centre, the trust was the only one in the country to secure all of the standards required at the same time.

New figures show 76.8 per cent of category A, or life threatening calls, had some sort of response with them within eight minutes. The target was 75 per cent.

If the initial response then called for back up, the trust had to get help out within 19 minutes in 95 per cent of cases, and it achieved 98.1 per cent.

Category B calls, which are considered serious but non-life threatening, had to have a response out within 19 minutes 95 per cent of the time – which it achieved exactly.

The trust was also tasked with answering 95 per cent of 999 calls within five seconds which it managed to do 98.1 per cent of the time.

The organisation also revealed it received nearly 864,000 calls in 2010/2011 and had its busiest day on record on December 17, 2010, when the trust provided 3,941 responses.

New Clinical Quality Indicators have been introduced by the Government for next year.

145 join mothers' scheme

More than 145 venues in Dudley have signed up to a scheme to ensure breastfeeding mothers are made to feel welcome.

Health chiefs in the borough say for mothers with a baby, it helps to know where they are welcome to breastfeed so Dudley Public Health, with Dudley Council, has launched a breastfeeding welcome scheme throughout the borough.

The scheme gives cafes, restaurants, leisure centres, libraries, children's centres and other public venues resources to let mothers know they are welcome to breastfeed on the premises. They include a sticker for the front window and a poster.

Councillor Liz Walker, Dudley Council's member for children's services, said: "I'm sure it will prove a real help to new mums."

Council app

Dudley residents can now contact the council via a new mobile phone app. The Looking Local application is a free android app created so people can use their phone to report vandalism, potholes and abandoned vehicles.

Missed appointments cost £4m

Patients failing to turn up for appointments cost Dudley's hospital trust nearly £4million last year, new figures claim.

A total of 44,696 slots – calculated at £3.9m – were missed during 2010/11 and hospital bosses are working to reduce the number of people who forget to show.

Housing base is to be closed

A housing office in Dudley earmarked for closure after repairs and maintenance costs were estimated at around £110,000 will shut by the autumn, council chiefs say.

Bosses have rubber-stamped the plan to axe the North Dudley Area Housing Office in Bilston Street, Sedgley, and say they will look to knock it down "soon after its closure."

A survey carried out by Dudley Council last autumn revealed £22,000 was needed to repair the roof, drainage and outside in the short-term and a further £86,000 would be needed in the long-term.

Council bosses say severe weather last winter has also taken its toll. Costs associated with the demolition and clearing of the site have been put at £3,000.

There will be no job losses as a result of the closure.

Council records also showed less than 100 customers a week were using the office for services other than income payment, with the majority accessing a free phone to other council departments.

Housing chief Councillor Adrian Turner, said: "People will still be able to access housing services in a range of ways."

It's a top Midsummer night out

One of Shakespeare's most famous comedies was given a Black Country twist for its latest outdoor experience.

The Black Country Living Museum, Dudley, was the venue for a different take on the Bard's A Midsummer Night's Dream.

Instead of the mystical forest of the original play, towering chimneys and a canalside dockyard were the backdrop for the three-day production.

An all-male cast from open air theatre company The Lord Chamberlain's Men staged the performance surrounded by rusting canal barges and old ironworks.

While rain drenched both cast and visitors, brighter weather over the weekend ensured a good time was had by all.

The dramatic industrial setting had theatre-goers in raptures as many had travelled from around the region to see the show.

Many took picnics to sit within the grounds of the museum, in Tipton Road, before the play started.

Friends Peggy Vowles, aged 73 and Doreen Allen, 67, both from Tipton tucked in to their food on a bench overlooking the scene on Saturday night.

"It was a very energetic show and very enjoyable," said Doreen. Martin Bissell, 53, came from Sheldon, near Solihull, with his partner Tracy Abbott, 48 and their friend Deborah Fitzgerald, 49, and said it had been well worth it.

"The performance was so absorbing that I couldn't believe it when it got to the end as we had been so engrossed," he said.

and Guest hospitals in Dudley and the Corbett in Stourbridge, has already started a telephone reminder service which automatically reminds patients of their clinic appointment.

The phone call service had previously been trialled for orthopaedic outpatients after proving successful, it was rolled out to all outpatient, inpatient and day case departments.

Council pulls out of centre plan

Plans for a new £7 million health and social care centre will be scaled back after Dudley Council pulled out of the project.

The authority said it could no longer afford to contribute £90,000 a year for five years for the complex in Lye, which will now be solely funded by NHS Dudley.

It had been hoped the centre could offer both health and social care facilities and would have housed council offices. But health bosses said it would now concentrate on healthcare. This would include GP practices, a pharmacy and minor surgery. The proposed site for the building is on land between Clinic Drive and Jackson Street.

Dudley Council's housing chief, Councillor Lesley Faulkner said: "Dudley Council has made a decision to withdraw from the health and social care scheme in Lye."

"This is because the council is unable to make the required financial contribution within its budget and medium-term financial strategy as funding from the department of health has been withdrawn and this was expected to cover a substantial part of the scheme's cost.

"It is important to stress that the scheme will still go ahead but as an NHS facility," she said.

NHS Dudley managing director Steve Cartwright said: "We are obviously disappointed the vision for a shared health and social care facility in the Lye area is no longer viable."

"We are still in the very early stages of the project."

Anger as home for respite care is shut

Jane Robinson with Kaysie-Jane Bland and family member Shannon Robinson

Parents of severely disabled children in the Black Country are "upset and angry" after a respite home they depended upon to give them regular breaks closed suddenly amid fears the building poses an infection risk.

Health chiefs say a recent outbreak of sickness at The Willows, Vicarage Road, Amblecote, Stourbridge, which provided short breaks for 17 children with "complex health and social care needs", prompted the decision.

Six members of staff and two children were affected by the bug. NHS Dudley and Black Country Partnership NHS Foundation Trust, which manages the service for youngsters aged up to 18, has now suspended admissions while they review the options for future provision of respite care.

But parents are angry the nearest alternative offered is in Brownhills, over 20 miles away.

Single mother Jane Robinson, aged 36, of Hockley Lane, Netherton, whose seven-year-old daughter, Kaysie-Jane Bland, has cerebral palsy and is quadriplegic, said: "I feel very angry and upset. Kaysie-Jane has been going to The Willows for one night twice a month since she was just over six months old to give me a break."

Rachael Gardener, aged 43, of Jason Road, Stourbridge, and her husband, Malcolm, 43, have also depended upon The Willows.

They have seven-year-old twins Tom, who is quadriplegic with cerebral palsy and Harry, who has autism and severe learning difficulties, and say they need respite to spend quality time with daughter Hannah, 14.

Statement

A joint statement from NHS Dudley and Black Country Partnership NHS Foundation Trust says: "We have managed issues associated with the poor fabric of the building for some time in order to maintain a safe service."

However, a recent outbreak of sickness and diarrhoea has presented a clinical risk. Whilst this has been dealt with, we are no longer confident that this might not pose a future clinical risk."

Sue Marshall, director of children, young people and families at the trust, said: "This decision was not taken lightly."

Summer of sports

Sports and arts activities will be held for children across Dudley this summer.

The summer holiday programme runs from July 28 to September 2 offering sessions for children aged five to 16.

Many of the events will be held at the borough's five healthy hubs and Priory Park, off The Broadway, Dudley.

Silver Jubilee Park, Coseley, Mary Stevens Park, Stourbridge, The Dale stadium, Brierley Hill, Netherton Park and Huntingtree Park, Halesowen are the five healthy hubs.

Visit www.dudley.gov.uk or call 01384 815594.

Silver Jubilee Park, Coseley, Mary Stevens Park, Stourbridge, The Dale stadium, Brierley Hill, Netherton Park and Huntingtree Park, Halesowen are the five healthy hubs.

Hillcrest School pupils Emma Balcerz, Hayleigh Gill and Samantha Harrison, all 15 from Netherton, waited more than two hours for Parade to arrive.

They were minus member Lauren Deegan who has injured her ankle while touring.

The other four, Emily Biggs, Bianca Claxton, Jessica Agombar and Sian Charlesworth said they were there by their reception.

Blueprint for town drawn up

A blueprint to help shape the future of Stourbridge town centre is being drawn up by council chiefs. It is hoped the Area Action Plan will help guide new investment, identifying where new shops and homes will be located.

Bosses at Dudley Council have drafted "preferred options" for work they would like to see completed after speaking to traders and land owners and now plan to ask the public what they think about the ideas before they incorporate them into the document.

One of the ideas is to make the shopping area of the town centre more attractive and pedestrianised.

Bosses have previously said they would like to widen some of the narrow pavements on the High Street.

Another option could lead to improvements to the River Stour focusing on the area's nature conservation value and the provision of pathways along the river bank.

Aseries of "opportunity sites" could also be identified. They would look at how new residential developments could be provided.

The document is also set to consider providing space for creative and cultural industry around the Stourbridge Wharf area at Canal Street.

Council bosses are set to launch a public consultation on preferred options. A report was due before Dudley Council's Cabinet on June 29 recommends the consultation begins on July 11 and runs until August 22.

During that time the document could be viewed at Dudley Council, Mary Stevens Park, Stourbridge and Dudley Council Plus as well as at main libraries and on the council's website.

Following the consultation a document will be prepared. It will be discussed further next spring, before being submitted to the Planning Inspectorate for consideration in summer 2012.

Wife uses shoe to attack love rival

A mother-of-three used her shoe to attack a woman she claimed was having an affair with her husband – on the day she found she was pregnant again, a court heard.

Amanda Griffiths, of Thornhill Road, Quarry Bank, hit Jaime Hindmarsh with the shoe, dislocating a joint in her hand.

Griffiths, aged 29, admitted assaulting Miss Hindmarsh causing actual bodily harm and damaging her car on May 22. Dudley magistrates adjourned sentencing until July 20.

Mrs Marion Bibb, prosecuting, said Miss Hindmarsh worked with Griffiths' husband Scott at the Brickmakers Arms pub in Quarry Bank. Scott had left his wife and asked to stay at Miss Hindmarsh's home and his clothing was put into the boot of her car. Mrs Bibb said Griffiths kicked the car, denting the boot. Later Griffiths hit Miss Hindmarsh with one of her shoes causing her to need hospital treatment. Mr Suresh Joshi, defending, said Griffiths' husband had an affair with Miss Hindmarsh but they got back together. He kept promising to be faithful but was not.

Champion crushed to death by his car

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

A motor racing champion died after being crushed by his prized Austin Healey as he worked on it, an inquest heard.

Stuart Bullas, aged 52, was discovered at his company, BG Bullas Ltd, in Fletcher Street, Lye, on April 10 by three of his friends who had become concerned after they were unable to contact him.

Smethwick Coroners Court heard Mr Bullas, of Hagley Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham, had been working on his Austin Healey Sprite at the factory when it slipped from a support belt and fell on top of him.

He was carrying out maintenance work on the vehicle, which had helped him become a three-time Hill Climb champion, in preparation for a race near Shrewsbury the following week.

The inquest was told the vehicle was being held up solely by the belt, connected to a crane available for use nearby.

Mr Bullas' elder brother, Graham, said that he hoped the tragedy would convince anyone working on vehicles to take extra care to avoid similar accidents from happening in the future.

Mr Bullas' body was discovered by one of his best friends, co-driver and co-owner of the car Robin Johnson. Mr Johnson wept as he told the hearing that he and his friend had been scheduled to meet on April 10 but he had been unable to contact him to arrange a time.

He had gone to the factory at the time they usually met but was concerned when the roller shutter was down.

Mr Johnson then tried at Mr Bullas' home but received

Stuart competing in his car

no response. Mr Johnson and two other friends of Mr Bullas then went back to the factory and called for a key-holder to open up the building where they found his body. Mr Johnson said: "My first thought was to get the car off him so I reconnected the belt and used the crane to lift it."

Paramedics were called but nothing could be done.

Paying tribute Graham Bullas described his brother as a "kind and generous man" who did not have an enemy in the world.

"My brother did not have children of his own but my three children adored him as did our two nieces by our elder brother. He will be deeply missed.

"Anybody working on a motor vehicle in the future who reads this sad story must take care to avoid such tragic accidents themselves. It has been truly difficult for us all and it could have been avoided."

Black Country coroner Robin Balmain recorded a verdict of accidental death at the end of yesterday's hearing and he said that the medical cause of death was traumatic asphyxia.

Swimmers warned about river dangers

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

Youths have been dicing with death by leaping into rivers and reservoirs during the spell of warm weather, police say.

Officers and Wyre Forest District Council's Ranger service, have issued urgent warnings.

They said swimming in open water was fraught with dangers. Besides the risks posed by currents in deep water, the sudden change in temperature when jumping in can cause an attack of the cramps, leading to people being unable to swim and sinking to the bottom.

Every summer police in Bewdley receive calls about people jumping off the bridge through the town into the River Severn.

Leaping

On June 27 – the hottest day of the year so far – a report was received about youths leaping into the reservoir at Trimpley, near Kidderminster.

Wyre Forest District Police Inspector Paul Crowley warned such larking about could end in death.

"It might be very inviting in warm weather but swimming in unauthorised and unsupervised stretches of river or other open water is fraught with danger," said Inspector Crowley.

Wyre Forest District Council's Ranger service looks after areas such as Puxton Marshes and Huccott Pool in Kidderminster.

Wyre Forest Community Safety Partnership chairperson Helen Dyke said: "Hidden obstructions can cause entanglement and sharp debris may cause nasty wounds, exposing someone to waterborne diseases."

A recent tragedy in Stourport also highlights the need to beware near water.

Robbie Fidoe, aged 12, died after falling 20ft into a canal lock while riding his bike over a narrow bridge.

Plant hoping to be foam-ous

Carl Chinn opens the new foam centre with Mike Skidmore and Phil Pearson

Local historian Professor Carl Chinn was the guest of honour at the opening of a new recycling facility in the Black Country.

He was at Dart Products Ltd, Cradley Heath, to cut the ribbon at the firm's new polystyrene foam collection centre, the first of its kind in the West Midlands.

Bosses at the company, in Garratts Lane, say the new centre is among the first in the UK to accept food containers including cups, plates and takeaway cartons. Items are recycled to become products such as garden furniture and building insulation.

Mr Chinn said: "It is a real coup that a company like Dart has opened its first recycling facility in the UK in the heart of the Black Country."

"Historically recycling has always gone on in the West Midlands and a centre like this is bringing the past, present and the future together."

Flood of donations after armed robbery

dudleychronicles@expressandstar.co.uk

Letters of support and donations flooded into Midlands Air Ambulance after an armed robbery in which staff were held hostage, bosses said.

Bosses say well-wishers have pledged to hold events to help raise funds after £12,000 was stolen. Raiders held 20 staff hostage at the organisation's Brierley Hill HQ before stealing the cash during the terrifying raid on June 21.

Bosses at the charity, solely funded by the public, said they received about £1,300 in donations in the week since news of the robbery first broke.

Midlands Air Ambulance needs £6 million a year to continue its work. Those donating so far include the Castle & Crystal Credit Union, Dudley, which has donated £250. A pub landlord has also made a £250 donation.

Charity spokesman Katy Meaney said: "We have had lots of letters from people who are planning to hold events in the future to help us raise funds and we have been inundated with letters of support."

Taser

Three masked men with a taser gun burst into Midlands Air Ambulance's base and locked workers in a room before fleeing with cash in a member of staff's grey Peugeot 308.

No-one was hurt but staff at the site, on the Enterprise Trading Estate, Pedmore Road, were left traumatised and have been offered counselling.

Raiders were all black, in their 20s, and wearing scarves across their faces.

The getaway car was recovered in Dudley the following day by police.

Anyone with information to help the police investigation is urged to contact the Sandwell and Dudley team of the Force Criminal Investigation department at Harborne police station on 0345 113 5000 or speak to Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

• Bikers have helped raise £12,000 for the Midlands Air Ambulance charity. More than 700 enthusiasts biked across the Midlands to raise the funds.

The ride, which started at the Worcester Warriors Stadium, exceeded the £10,000 target organisers had aimed for. Riders were simply asked to make a donation, but many also raised sponsorship to take part.

Fundraising manager Stef Langford-Brown said: "Bikers have always been huge supporters of the charity. More than 50 per cent of the airlifts the Midlands Air Ambulance attends are road traffic accidents, and the biking community understands that the work done by the charity is invaluable."

Friends head for hills

Walkers Ian Rogers, left, and Jon Harris are among those who will be limbering up for the Three Peaks Challenge

An adventurous band of Black Country friends will be heading for the hills this weekend in a 24-hour fundraising challenge.

The seven-strong team from Stourbridge, Halesowen, Wolverhampton and Sutton Coldfield will be attempting the national Three Peaks Challenge to raise funds for the Multiple Sclerosis Society on July 9.

Walkers and friends Ian Rogers, Adam Fletcher, Mark Serdetschni, Steven Bloomer, Corinne Mullard, Stuart Patterson and Jon Harris hope to scale Ben Nevis, Scafell Pike, and Snowdon within 24 hours.

Chance meeting that sparked a friendship

Captain Gemma Leek and Captain Sally Mullen

West Midland soldier Gemma Leek went to serve in Afghanistan – and met a neighbour she had not seen for 13 years in the queue for lunch.

The 28-year-old Captain lived just yards away from Sally Mullen throughout their childhood and both went to the same school and Air Cadet unit before losing touch when she joined the army at the age of 15. She explained: "We just bumped into each other at the Camp Bastion cook house. I was waiting in line for lunch."

"Most women change their hair styles every five minutes but luckily ours have remained pretty much the same and we had no trouble recognising each other. It was an amazing moment and we have been catching up on the gossip ever since."

Captain Mullen, aged 26, said: "I had only just arrived and was waiting to get my food when I saw Sally frantically waving at me. It was lovely to see a familiar face and an awfully long way to travel to renew our friendship after all those years, especially since we had spent more than 10 years living just yards apart."

Training

The pair attended Waseley Hill High School near their homes in Rubery and went to the local Air Cadets training centre before losing touch when Cpt Leek, now with the Adjutant General Corps based at Aldershot.

Cpt Mullen went to King Edwards College, Stourbridge and university in Cardiff before training at Sandhurst and in September marries Naval Lieutenant Andy Young whom she met on a gap year in Vietnam eight years ago.

She has recently been working at Frimley Park Hospital in Aldershot, unaware that Cpt Leek lives and is employed nearby. Camp Bastion is the main British military base in Afghanistan.

According to 21,000 people it is situated northwest of Lashkar Gah and is the logistics hub for operations in Helmand. It is the largest British overseas military camp built since the Second World War.

Manning the guns to keep comrades safe from attackers

As the Royal Navy's flagship HMS Albion manoeuvres towards crisis-hit Libya, two sailors from the Black Country take their place at the helm of the ship's machine guns.

Their task is a simple one: use the weapons to protect their colleagues from any incoming assaults on the ship or on any British attack helicopters.

It is a dangerous job but one both Naval Airman Mark Lawrence, from Cradley Heath, and Naval Airman Katie Village, from Stourbridge, enjoy hugely.

HMS Albion, a 18,500-ton assault ship has been acting as the floating command platform for all military operations in Libya.

Earlier last month, Apache helicopters were launched against military targets in Libya and it was the job of NA Lawrence and NA Village to protect them as they were dispatched.

Threat

"During the first Apache missions, HMS Albion moved toward the Libyan coast where the threat level is higher," said 23-year-old NA Village, a former pupil at Grange School in Stourbridge.

"Mark and I were manning weapons on the upper deck from where we could see the lights along the Libyan shoreline."

"It was very surreal – it was the kind of thing you would normally see on the news, but we were watching it for real."

Helping protect the people of Libya is a world away from NA Village's previous job. She started her working career as a greengrocer.

Now, she is part of an elite team of maritime personnel that includes helicopter crews and Royal Marines.

As part of her role, she is also involved as an aircraft handler, trained to move and fuel helicopters and to respond to fires and other emergencies.

"I really enjoy working outdoors on the flight deck, in the sunshine surrounded by the sea," she said. "I'd hate to be stuck below deck in an office all day."

Meanwhile NA Lawrence, 25, a former pupil at Leasowes Community College in Halesowen, said being at the centre of military operations in Libya had ensured he was always kept busy. "At the beginning of the deployment HMS Albion dep-artert the UK with four helicopters," he said.

Naval Airman Katie Village and NA Mark Lawrence

"As she is primarily designed to carry Royal Marines and their landing craft, she does not normally carry this many. We've also hosted visiting helicopters from France and Saudi Arabia.

Exceptionally

"It's meant that the whole aviation team has been exceptionally busy, but it's great because I much prefer to have a hands-on role."

HMS Albion has been away from the conflict area of Libya, but that does not mean its crew will get a rest.

They were docked in Abu Dhabi ahead of its involvement in a series of amphibious and land-based exercises called Sea Khanjar. The military exercises, with forces from the United Arab Emirates, will continue until July 6 – before heading back to the UK through the Suez Canal. HMS Albion may have taken the two Black Country sailors all around the world, but for the pair, they look forward to nothing more than returning to their roots.

"I miss family and friends most when I'm at sea," said NA Lawrence. "I always enjoy going for a drink at The Waterfall in Cradley Heath whenever I'm back home."

Meanwhile NA Village added: "The best things about coming from the Black Country is walks in Mary Stevens Park in Stourbridge and shopping trips to Merry Hill."

Horses are given new identities

Some of the horses that have been plaguing the Pensnett, Brierley Hill and Russells Hall areas have been taken into special police protection and are being given new identities.

The horses are now happily grazing at a top secret location deep in the countryside.

A horse professional – given the codename “Brenda” is to guard against any retaliation from disgruntled owners – they are being fed and nursed through painful conditions.

They will then be given a horse passport, microchipped and trained before being offered to new, responsible owners.

So far 31 horses have been seized by police, mainly in the Brierley Hill and Pensnett area, since April 16, after a new arrangement with Dudley Council ended months of talks on tackling the problem. Four ponies were later reclaimed by legitimate owners, eight have been rehomed and

19 are still being cared for by “Brenda”. She offered her land and services because she could not stand the thought of the animals suffering.

The new arrangement is on a six-month trial but Dudley Council refuses to say how much the service is costing as it may ultimately be put out to public tender and the information would then be commercially sensitive.

But already it is paying dividends – with reports of the number of calls about strays falling from around 200 a month to 30.

However, there are still thought to be around 40 horses roaming the area.

The police will seize horses only if they are on the road. To report a stray call police on 0845 113 5000.

And anyone wishing to give a home to one of the strays should contact Sgt Tomkinson on 0845 113 5000, ext 7902 6711, or email c.tomkinson@west-midlands.police.uk

School choir on song for its big concert

Front left Jasmine Sangha, Lauren Cox, James Cahalane and Harvey Williams, all aged eight, with fellow pupils at Lutley Primary School

Young performers from a Halesowen primary school took to the stage in Birmingham. The Year 3 choir at Lutley Primary appeared at the National Festival of Music For Youth.

The choir took part in a regional festival at Netherton Arts Centre in March and the organisers were so impressed, they asked the choir to sing at the Birmingham event.

They performed at the Adrienne Boult Hall, Birmingham Conservatoire, alongside groups from across the country in the infants and juniors section of the week-long festival. The choir is made up of 30 youngsters between the ages of seven and eight.

However, the whole year group, made up of 85 children, have learned the songs which are being performed in their music lessons at the school.

The choir have taken part in a number of performances during the year, and Margaret Jones, music co-ordinator at the school said: “They are so enthusiastic.”

Road closure | Chippy plan

A road in Stourbridge will be closed for three days while resurfacing work is carried out. Foxcote Lane in Wollescote will be shut from July 15 to July 17. Vehicle access to premises will be allowed.

Actors in fundraising boost to help charity

An amateur dramatic group in South Staffordshire is breaking new ground by donating the proceeds from its next show to charity. The New Kinver Players will perform A Taste of Summer on July 8 and 9.

Their performances will support Macmillan Cancer Support and Help For Heroes. Chairman of New Kinver Players Penny Cooper said: “We will use the talent within the group to celebrate summer in a slightly different way, with all of the proceeds going to our two chosen charities”.

A Taste of Summer is a light-hearted and uplifting selection of playlets, readings and poems.

Performances will take place at 8pm at The Edward Marsh Centre, Kinver. Tickets cost £5 and are available from the ticket secretary. People can telephone 01384 872197 to book places.

Students' artwork goes on display

Students at Halesowen College have been exhibiting the coursework in their end-of-year display.

The show features 20 displays ranging from a collection of 1930s diaries to a complex contraption for transporting water.

It has been organised to celebrate the end of the course and show off what they have been working on in recent months. Each of the student artists has been given the freedom to choose their own theme and use any materials they wish. Jade Cooper, 19, of Tividale, found a box of someone's personal belongings in a charity shop in Bournville, Birmingham and used them in her display.

Diaries

It contained letters and diaries by a couple from Kings Heath, Birmingham, ranging from the 1930s to the 1980s. Jade has reproduced some of the artefacts and made a montage piecing together aspects of their lives.

She has also painted portraits of the couple using two small photographs which were in the box.

Meanwhile fellow students Christopher Perks, 20, of Quarry Bank, has built a network of pipes and tubes to feed water around, controlled by levers and pulleys. He was inspired by the board game Mouse Trap and “the different forces that can be created by a wacky machine”, he said. Claire Welch, 18, of Oldbury, has taken images from Ladybird children's books, painted them on a tea set and surrounded them with “cynical” messages.

Suspects caught on camera are sought

Police are trying to trace these men in connection with a spate of unrelated crimes – a motorist was held up at knife-point; items were stolen from a petrol station and electrical goods were taken from a supermarket.

The incidents are not thought to be linked but police have released CCTV images of people they want to speak to in connection with them.

The images were released after the BP service station in Stourbridge Road, Halesowen, was targeted by two separate thieves.

In the first theft on May 30, a man entered the store, took four bottles of engine oil from a shelf, and walked out without paying.

dudleychrons@
expressandstar.co.uk

Then on June 8, a motorist filled up a silver Honda with fuel worth £71.01, and drove off without paying.

The theft of a driver's wallet near Stourbridge prompted police there to release an e-fit of a man they are trying to trace.

Driving

The incident happened at about 1.30pm on June 10 when the motorist, a man in his 30s, who was driving a white Ford Focus, pulled up at traffic lights at the Hackman's Gate crossroads between Blakelaw and Belbroughton.

The thief pulled open the driver's door, threatened him with a knife and demanded his wallet.

The robber had a small black dog with him. Police also want to speak to two men after electrical equipment was stolen from Asda, Merry Hill.

The men were seen hanging around the electrical aisle at around 7.30pm on June 7. One man took a video set-top box from the shelf and concealed it in the other man's bag. A 19-inch Luxor LCD black TV set was also picked up and the men walked out of the store without paying.

The theft happened at around 7.30pm on June 7.

Anyone with information on the supermarket theft can contact the Brierley Hill neighbourhood team on 0345 113 5000.

Anyone who can help with the wallet theft is asked to call detectives in Kidderminster on 0300 333 3000.

And for the petrol station thefts people can call Halesowen police station on 0345 113 5000.

M is for mystery as mother admits fraud

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

A mother-of-three cashed four cheques totalling £10,000 from the account of a local firm of solicitors through a man known only as "M", who was thought to work at the company, a court heard.

But Debbie Smith, aged 33, was paid only £50 per cheque she cashed, Dudley magistrates were told.

Smith, of Blowers Green, Dudley, declined to give police officers the identity of the person who had given her the cheques, saying she believed her family may be in danger.

Smith admitted four charges of fraud by cashing a cheque to the value of £2,500 from the account of Peter Chahal Solicitors, intending to gain the money for another person. The firm, in Wolverhampton Street, Dudley, is now closed.

Investigate

The sole practitioner of the company, Peter Chahal, said after the court hearing last week that he had brought in police and the Law Society to investigate a fraud on his firm and would not comment further.

The case was adjourned until July 15 for a probation report.

Miss Val Hart, prosecuting, said Smith was one of a number of people interviewed as part of a larger police investigation into fraudulent activity involving cheque books belonging to the solicitors.

Miss Hart added that, when asked for the identity of the person who had given her the cheques she refused, saying she thought her family may be in danger. Smith told police she gave the money to a person she called "M".

Mr Malcolm Fowler, defending, said: "The truth of all of this is that this lady was clearly recruited by someone in a position of some apparent authority in the practice of solicitors that has been mentioned."

"Someone with a silver tongue persuaded her to become involved."

Desert dash due for Mike

Mike Crannage prepares for his gruelling desert dash

A Mayor's attendant is set to conquer one of the world's biggest deserts in a solo charity run.

Mike Crannage will brave soaring temperatures in a 155-mile run through the Sahara Desert on his own.

The council worker is hoping to raise money for the Dudley Group of Hospitals Charity and The Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Families Association.

The 52-year-old said: "I like the idea of doing things that are out of the ordinary."

To sponsor Mike in his challenge he will start on October 8 visit <http://mikecrannage.moonfruit.com>

Ke$ha - Animal + Cannibal (RCA)

The bratty wanna-be bad girl of pop got plenty of attention, stateside at least, with Animal her debut album 18 months ago, for which she boasted having a potential 200 tracks. Funny then that the next 'album' is a 'deluxe' version of the same debut album with the addition of just an ep's worth of new stuff. With her vocodered-auto-tuned vocals it's hard to tell what Ke$ha really sounds like. Bit like a whiny Pink. If Katy Perry is a teaser than Ke$ha likes to deliver the real rude stuff. It's a popular approach, chavvy electro dance pop, a pale shadow of Britney when she was at her best and without an ounce of Lady Gaga's talent, but it's yielded massive hits such as Tik Tok, Your Love Is My Drug and We R Who We R. But with lyrics like 'even my dirty laundry has started to smell like you,' I would recommend keeping a sick bag handy.

Selena Gomez and the Scene - When The Sun Goes Down (Hollywood)

Selena Gomez

The third album in three years from the Disney princess and she is now sounding more like a bona fide pop star than that wisecracking girl from Wizards of Waverley Place. There's plenty of potential hits here including the title song, That's More Like It (co-written by Katy Perry), Bang Bang Bang (which sounds a little like La Roux), We Own The Night (co-written by and sung with Pixie Lott), and Whiplash (co-written by Britney Spears).

Death Cab For Cutie - Codes And Keys (Atlantic)

Formed 14 years ago on the north-west coast of the US, Death Cab's rise to success has been slow but progressive, finally making a commercial breakthrough in their homeland with fifth studio album Plans. Featuring the vocals of Ben

ALBUM REVIEWSBad girl and bands on brink of the big time

Gibbard, theirs is a reflective, melancholy rock sound akin to REM and Arcade Fire. Codes And Keys, their first album in three years, is another solid piece of work with slowburning appeal and their slot support for The Foo Fighters at Milton Keynes will hopefully make many more realise what a good band they are...the next Arcade Fire or Elbow maybe?

Limp Bizkit - Gold Cobra (Interscope)

The 35 million album selling rap mega-rockers are back with their fifth album and their original 'classic' five-piece line-up fronted by Fred Durst. It is a hard and heavy expletive sound that will be heard from most US soldier beat boxes in dusty death zones.

Dave Stewart - The Blackbird Diaries (Weapons of Mass Entertainment)

The lesser-known half of the Eurythmics loves country rock and has headed to Nashville to record his first solo album in a long time, so if you're expecting synths and Annie Lennox, forget it. What you do get is some well-produced songs with Stewart's poor man's Clapton guitar and some star turns from such singers as Fleetwood Mac's Stevie Nicks (who co-wrote duet Cheaper Than Free), Martina McBride (whose husband John associate-produced), Californian pop star Colbie Callait and, on two tracks, those rather excellent young exponents of old time country The Secret Sisters. The ladies do show up with his bland vocals. And though Stewart has a way with a melody, his lyrics are poor. Best song is Worth The Waiting For and that's because Bob Dylan co-wrote it.

Death Cab For CutieAlice Gold - Seven Rainbows (Fiction)

A decade that's been blessed with a stunning array of new female talent continues with the potent vocals of Alice Gold, pitched somewhere between the grit of PJ Harvey and loneliness of Katie Melua. This is pop with psychedelic hints and a few dark undercurrents, from the French 60s pop influenced Runaway Love via the Jefferson Airplane-like Orbiter and the menacing How Long Have These Streets Been Empty.

Wolf Gang - Suego Faults (Atlantic)

A strong buzz justifiably surrounds this London-based symphonic pop/rock outfit which is a vehicle for the talent of Max McElligott. His musical reference points include Talking Heads, The Killers, Tears For Fears, The Editors and Ben Folds but most importantly also has something unique in his yearning, electro-rock wall of sound. Check them out at the Weston Park leg of the V Festival and you can download third single The King and All of His Men or hold on for the debut album's release on July 25.

Simple Plan - Get Your Heart On! (Atlantic)

Fourth studio album from the Canadian pop-punkers is a solid set of melodic rockers, more than a match for the likes of McFly but not in the Green Day league, and features some guest singers including Natasha Bedingfield (Jet Lag) and All Time Low's Alex Gaskarth on Freaking Me Out. Other standout tracks include Can't Keep My Hands Off You and Loser of the Year. Strange that we've become such a celeb-centred society that they can sing lyrics about not getting enough messages on their Blackberry, jet lag and having a fridge full of Champagne without alienating their listeners.

Simple Plan

Sophie Ellis-Bextor - Make A Scene (Essential)

It seems like a long time since Murder on the Dancefloor (and supporting Erasure on Cannock Chase last month she had to contend with mud on the dancefloor). Plenty of quality songwriters and producers are involved in this album, including Freemasons, Calvin Harris, Cathy Dennis and Armin Van Buuren. But there's a darn sight more misses than hits. The most potential as a hit is Heartbreak (Make Me A Dancer) which is a nicely dramatic slice of electro pop with a hint of Blondie about it.

All Time Low

All Time Low - Dirty Work (DGC)

Punchy punky power pop from a band that formed at high school in Maryland USA. This is their fourth album but the first on a major label and likely to catapult them to the forefront of the pop punk scene that's fast becoming the musical mainstream stateside. Raucous, melodic with a bit of angst but not enough to make things miserable. Includes the single I Feel Like Dancin' and probable future hit Time-Bomb.

Holly Wright is in the national finals of the Festival4Stars

Singing sensation Holly heads for the UK final

A BLACK Country schoolgirl hopes to hit the right notes when she heads to Scotland to represent her region in a singing competition.

Holly Wright, aged 11, from Forest Drive, Old Hill, sailed through the Festival4Stars auditions singing The Wind Beneath My Wings. The Netherbrook Primary pupil saw off competition from people three years her senior to win the Solo Singing 14 and Under category. She went on to beat rivals in the region's final last month at the Hilton Hotel in Birmingham to seal her place as Midlands representative for the prestigious final in November.

The competition has had celebrity judges including Blue heart-throb Duncan James and Bucks Fizz singer Cheryl Baker. Mother Michelle Wright said: "I'm very proud of her. She's only had singing lessons for 18 months."

Six hundred children sing in Latin for 'live and kicking' composer

MORE than 600 primary and secondary school singers from across Birmingham will have the chance to impress world-renowned composer Karl Jenkins when he attends their performance of his Stabat Mater at Symphony Hall on Monday July 11.

This is the second year the composer has given his commitment and support to Town Hall and Symphony Hall's Sing for All: Creative Foundations, an experience he described last year as "a revelation".

The concert is the grand finale of the project and the result of many months' work by the schoolchildren and teachers to learn the large scale choral piece, which is sung in Latin.

Since January, teachers have attended a series of workshops at Symphony Hall with musical director John Gibbons, who has been giving professional training and advice.

This, in turn, assists the teachers in their rehearsals with the children who need to overcome the significant challenges of learning such a large scale work intended for adult choirs and sung in an unfamiliar language.

Sing for All: Creative Foundations gives the youngsters an opportunity to strive for the highest levels of personal attainment and, for most, it will be their first concert experience, performing with a professional orchestra and singers in a world class venue.

Though rooted in the classical tradition, Karl Jenkins's music is infused with different world cultures, jazz traditions and strong rhythmic elements making it particularly appealing to younger people.

Offers

And, as Karl Jenkins says, "it's nice for them to meet a composer who's still alive and kicking!"

Organised by Town Hall and Symphony Hall's Education and Community Department, Sing for All offers professional singing training and performance opportunities to all parts of the community, with funding from the Peter and Jane How Trust, patrons of the singing programme.

The programme is designed to support amateur singing in the region, creating a legacy for the future of choirs. Sing for All reached

1,500 people in 2010 in two projects.

Tickets for Monday's concert are priced £5 (plus transaction fee) are available from the box office on 0121

Staffordshire County Councillor Patrick Corfield takes a close look at the exhibition of Anglo-Saxon gold

Golden hoard of Mercian treasure goes on tour of Staffordshire venues

TREASURES from the Staffordshire Hoard have gone on display in Stafford for the first time as the relics, valued at £3.3 million, go on tour.

More than 40 of the gold and silver items are being exhibited at the Shire Hall Gallery until July 24. They went on show last Saturday (July 2).

The exhibition will also tell how archaeologists worked in secret to unearth the treasure.

Viewed

The exhibition can be viewed for free but 45-minute slots must be booked in advance at www.staffordshire.gov.uk/hoard or by calling the gallery on 01785 278345.

Tickets can be booked up to 4pm on the day before a visit.

Mayflower Control Ltd has been appointed to guard the hoard during its Shire Hall stint.

Twin roles in a theatre classic

STOURBRIDGE Theatre Company is on the lookout for male twins to star in its production of the dramatic musical Blood Brothers.

The group is preparing to perform Willy Russell's popular West End hit in November and are starting rehearsals soon.

They are hoping to find twins – or at least two very similar looking men – aged around 25 to 30-years-old.

Open auditions are being held for the parts of Eddie and Mickey at St Joseph's Primary School in Lea Vale Road, Norton, Stourbridge, and the auditions will be on Monday, July 11, at 7.30pm.

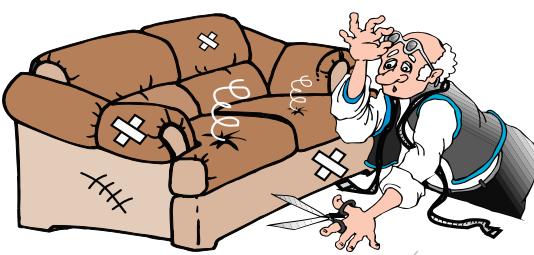

The play will be staged at Stourbridge Town Hall, from November 24 to 26.

Further information about the play and parts available it, call 01562 885578.

Second helpings of Dinner

VICTORIA Wood's popular TV sit-com Dinnerladies makes the transition to stage with Andrew Dunn and Sue Devayn reprising their telly roles at Birmingham's New Alexandra Theatre from Monday, July 18, to Saturday, July 23.

Everyone loves a royal wedding.
A time for celebration, feasts and street parties for all!

Cameron Mackintosh's new hit British musical BETTY BLUE EYES has just opened to rave reviews in London's glittering West End. It's 1947 and excitement is growing as the good folk of Shepardsford, Yorkshire prepare to celebrate the forthcoming Royal Wedding of Princess Elizabeth to Philip Mountbatten. Determined to defy strict rationing measures and mark the special occasion accordingly, members of the town's Council are fattening up a highly illegal pig called Betty for a lavish banquet in honour of the royal couple. Rejected by the town for being nobodies, Gilbert and his social climbing wife Joyce resolve to steal the pig – but will it save Betty's bacon? Sarah Lancashire and Reece Shearsmith lead a marvellous cast including, Olivier Award winners Adrian Scarborough and David Bamber and, of course, Betty as herself.

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT

BBC1, 7.10pm

At couple of years ago, John Barrowman was so ubiquitous, some people started to wonder if BBC actually stood for Barrowman Broadcasting Corporation. This week he's back with a bang along with this Saturday night show. If you haven't seen the previous series, it gives members of the public the chance to make their dreams come true – think of it as John'll Fix It with no medallions and fewer trackstars. There's a definite musical theme to the wishes being granted in this first instalment, as Dolly Parton conducts a masterclass for one of her biggest fans.

T4 ON THE BEACH

Channel 4, 1.40pm

The summer officially gets underway in Weston-super-Mare as this musical extravaganza rolls into town. The show promises the airing of more hit singles than even Simon Cowell would know what to do with. Speaking of the moneybags mogul, X Factor approved acts appearing this year include JLS and Cher Lloyd. Nicola Roberts also performs, hoping to replicate the solo success of Girls Aloud bandmate Cheryl Cole. Recent chart-toppers Jessie J, Jason Derulo and Example also take the stage. More big names including Katy B, The Wanted, Tinchy Stryder and McFly also hit the stage.

The top property guide for Dudley, Stourbridge, Halesowen and Kidderminster

A garage and off-street parking are included in this three-bedroom detached in Brierley Hill

Double-glazed and a detached home

Offers around £159,950 are being invited for this beautifully presented, modern style three-bedroomed detached family home in Goldencross Way, Brierley Hill.

Conveniently situated for local amenities, it is well worth a closer look, coming with uPVC double glazing and a gas central heating system.

The entrance door leads to an entrance hall with laminate style flooring, radiator, stairs to the first floor and useful understairs storage cupboard.

The guest WC has WC, pedestal hand wash basin, tiled splashbacks and radiator, while the 17ft by 10ft 4in lounge has an archway leading to a dining area with glazed French doors opening to the rear garden.

Oven

The kitchen, 9ft 7in by 9ft 5in, has a fine range of base and eye level units with roll-edge work surfaces, one and a half bowl stainless steel sink, integrated gas hob, electric oven with extractor and plumbing for automatic washing machine.

On the first floor, bedroom one – measuring 11ft 9in by 10ft 4in, has an en suite with white suite made up of walk-in shower, WC, hand wash basin and part-tiled walls.

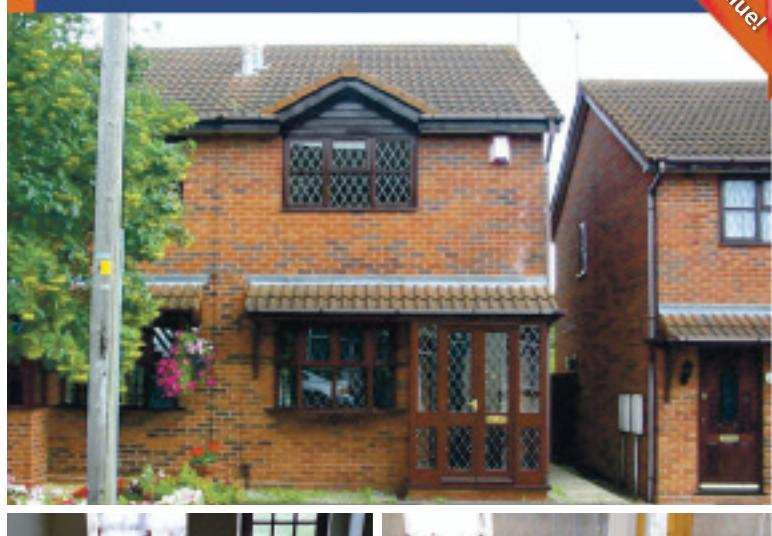

There are two other bedrooms, measuring 10ft 7in by 10ft 5in and 9ft 9in by 8ft 6in respectively, and a bathroom with white suite.

The rear garden is laid to lawn with paved patio area and timber decked area, while at the side of the property a tarmacadam driveway provides off-street parking and leads to a garage measuring 17ft 10in by 8ft 8in.

CHRONICLE MOTORING Powered by motors.co.uk*Volvo D5s balance power, economy and environment

VOLVO'S newly enhanced D5 range manages to strike the balance between environment and performance despite larger engine sizes.

Sometimes a higher performing and bigger engine is what's required from a company car. This would usually compromise environmental concerns and lift fuel costs and taxes. Volvo's latest D5 diesel range provides a number of models with impressive fuel economy and CO2 emissions.

The upgraded versions of the Volvo V70, XC70 and S80 are the first in the model to have sharpened versions of the five-cylinder D5 turbo-diesels which boost performance and torque from 205 hp/420Nm to 215 hp/440Nm while reducing fuel consumption by as much as eight per cent.

Choice

"We have made these vehicles more enjoyable and as cost-efficient as possible to drive," said Volvo UK's national sales manager, Selwyn Cooper. "With that comes lower CO2 which means company car drivers have a widened choice of vehicles powered by larger engines without the expected hike in the amount of tax they would have to pay."

Fuel consumption (EU Combined) of a Volvo S80 D5 is 57.7mpg (129g/km of CO2) with manual gearbox and start/stop, placing it in the 18 per cent BIK category. Figures for the automatic version are 44.1mpg (159 g/km). The figures for a Volvo V70 are 55.4mpg (134g/km) with manual gearbox and 45.6mpg with automatic (164g/km). Fuel consumption in the XC70 D5 AWD manual is 50mpg (149g/km) and 41.5mpg (179g/km) for automatic.

The V70, XC70 and S80 have been upgraded with features including driveline, interior and exterior equipment including the latest user-friendly Volvo Sensus infotainment system, and are available to order now with on-the-road prices for D5 versions starting from £30,100 for the V70 D5 (215hp) ES Start/Stop, £31,135 for the S80 D5 (215hp) SE Start/Stop; and £32,765 for the XC70 D5 AWD (215 hp) ES Start/Stop.

NOTICE TO READERS Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:

1. Try to enquire to visit the puppy whilst it is still with its Mother.

2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.

3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if possible.

Whilst Midland News Advertising publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

OLD HILL LACKING ATTACK ON ATTOCK

Saturday July 2
OLD HILL (8 POINTS) 200-9 DREW WITH ATTOCK (16 POINTS) 245-8.

The 1stXI played hosts to Attock at Haden Hill on a perfect summer's afternoon before a large expectant crowd.

However, after the euphoria of last weekend's successes they turned in a below par performance against the revitalised visitors.

Having won the toss, Old Hill chose to field and Ed Denham took the first wicket before a run had been scored but then partnerships of 84 and 104 between centurion Q Zaman (106) and first J Khan (39) and then A Mahmood (42) took Attock to 193 - 3 before a flurry of five wickets for 25 runs left the visitors struggling to post a commanding total.

However, a late rally took the score to 245-8 wickets off their 55 overs with Zafran Ali (5-58) and Nigel Davenport (2-69) the pick of the home bowlers.

Old Hill's reply started well enough as Dan Cox (11), Nitesh Patel (27) and Mike Hingley (43) took the hosts to 93-1 before the unfortunate Hingley received a nasty blow on the foot, disturbing his concentration, to be caught at mid-on immediately after the injury.

Old Hill then struggled to push on

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

against a mixture of hostile fast and spin bowling finding themselves staring defeat in the face with the last pair at the wicket and 10 overs remaining but with some resolute and sensible batting by last pair Zafran Ali (15 not out) and Sharkey Hussain (5no) they weathered the storm to salvage a draw.

HARBORNE (2 POINTS) 163 LOST TO OLD HILL (20 POINTS) 166-2 BY 8 WICKETS.

The 2ndXI made the short trip to Old Church Avenue for their game against Harborne and having won the toss chose to field and were soon amongst the wickets as frontline bowlers Connor Smith (3-36), Jon Bigg (1-35), Dan Such (3-14) and Jared Daniels (2-50) combined to dismiss the home side for 163 in 42 overs.

Old Hill then put together a solid batting performance as in form Dan Wood (106 not out) hit an unbeaten century ably assisted by Joe Thorin (44) as the visitors were victorious in just 31 overs for a superb win by 8 wickets.

CLEOBURY MORTIMER (24 POINTS) 225-7 BEAT OLD HILL (3 POINTS) 123 BY 102 RUNS.

A weakened 3rdXI were no match for Cleobury Mortimer at the Love Lane Ground. Old Hill won the toss and chose to field and the hosts scored 225-7 wickets off their 50 overs. For the visitors, Nathan Davies took 4-37 off 9 overs and Richard Lloyd 2-54 from his 15 overs were the pick of the bowlers. In reply, Old Hill's inexperienced team never got to terms with the task in hand and were bowled out for 123 runs with only Mitch Jeffery (39) showing any resistance as the home side ran out winners by 123 runs.

OLD HILL (24 POINTS) 175-8 BEAT CLEOBURY MORTIMER (5 POINTS) 170 BY 2 WICKETS.

The Fourth XI played out a roller-coaster game at Wassell Grove against Cleobury Mortimer with many twists and turns before finally coming out on top.

The visitors won the toss and decided to bat but thanks to some top class bowling and fielding by Old Hill, they could only manage a total of 170 runs in 30 overs although they had looked to be in the driving seat at 96-1 off 17 overs.

Pick of the bowlers was Izzy Khan who took 3-7 off 4 overs to add to his four outfall catches, closely followed by Captain Irsahd Ahmed who took 2 wickets.

Then, opening the Old Hill batting, Anthony Foster (49) and Izzy Khan (34) shared in an opening stand of 85 in 14 overs before the hosts found themselves with 8 wickets down and still 13 runs needed for victory in spite of a quick-fire 20 from Ahmed. Then, Lewis Javaid (9 not out) and Rob Lloyd saw Old Hill home to a brilliant third consecutive victory and a maximum 24 points.

ROMSLEY & HUNNINGTON (0 POINTS) 208 LOST
TO OLD HILL (11 POINTS) 209-7 BY 3 WICKETS.

The Sunday XI visited Romsley for their Worcester Border League Division 1 game and came away with a win in a hard fought game. Batting first, Romsley scored 208 all out with Dan Jones (4) and Dan Such (3) being the leading wicket-takers for the visitors.

In reply, Joe Thorn (50) got Old Hill off to a good start with a half century but it was then left to Captain Carl Whyte (50 not out) to shepherd the visitors home to victory with his own unbeaten half century and three wickets remaining.

Fixtures: Saturday 9 July
1stXI away at Kenilworth, noon start.
2ndXI at home to Shrewsbury, 12.30pm start.

3rdXI at home to Halesowen, 1.30pm start.

4thXI away at Halesowen, 1.30pm start.
Sunday 10 July Sunday XI at home to Waterfront, 2pm start.

Women's XI at home to Five Ways OE start 1pm.

Stour on track for record

STOURBRIDGE 1ST XI (24 POINTS) 138-2, BROM-YARD 1ST XI (1 POINT) 137 STOURBRIDGE WIN BY 8 WICKETS

The juggernaut successfully completed the first half of the journey this time beating a Bromyard team that was considered lead contenders for the league honours backed by highly talented players.

Stourbridge clocked up 207 points meaning their nearest new rivals are Pershore on 171. Bromyard skipper Edd Oliver won the toss confident of a victory decided to take the first strike in the soaring heat, a decision that has given Stour a handy 24 points to make them more secure at the top.

The successful opening duo James Musk and Jitesh Patel put the first up Bromyard pair on the back foot.

Bowling immaculate line and length Patel struck the first blow Ash Bullock nicked one to keeper Greg Jones with the score on 15 in the 6th over. In the next over Musk saw off skipper Edd Oliver judged lbw.

Zahid Saeed put away two consecutive boundaries off Patel joined by the Bromyard overseas prolific striker Dimusha Fernando the pair threatened to take the game away in scoring in boundaries.

Patel outwitted Fernando getting him to play an extravagant drive that looped in the air snipped up by Richard Bradley for 8 and Bromyard score on 34.

Having to squeeze out runs the pressure told on Bromyard batsmen. Musk claimed his second victim Errol Anderson lbw for 5, Stour now back in the game with Bromyard reeling 4 for 55 with Saeed 33 not out at the other end.

Audy Alexander bowled Greg Leighton for 1 and then trapped Tom Baylis for a duck Bromyard innings in tatters at 71 for 6 in the 22nd over. Left stranded defending Zahid Saeed's vigil ended trying to square cut Alexander for 60.

Anith wicket partnership of 41 between Matt Bullock (14) and Dave Taylor (25) repaired the damage taking the Bromyard score past the 100. The tall swept up the league leaders were once again in the driving seat. Audy Alexander ended up 4 for 36 in 14 overs. Kalpesh Patel bowled 10 overs giving away mere 13 runs for one wicket summed up a feature of Stour's success so far this season.

In the Stour innings openers Steve Game and Matt Bradley both batted sensibly at the start unleashing their stroke play timed perfectly. Bradley started the short burst of entertainment with four massive sixes in his quick fire 54.

Game played masterly with a not out 55.

The 106 partnership between Bradley and Game brought Stour victory in the 27th over by 8 wickets.

ALVECHURCH & HOPWOOD CC 2NDXI (5 POINTS)
221-9, STOURBRIDGE 2NDXI (20 POINTS) 222-4
STOURBRIDGE WIN BY 10 WICKETS

Stourbridge 2ndXI match against Alvechurch and Hopwood second XI was well worth the journey for the 20 points.

Stour Skipper Irfan Feraz chose to field and led his team to victory by six wickets.

Hopwood openers Steven Hamblin and Mike Gilmore were both sent back to the pavilion for ducks. The middle order kept Hopwood in the game taking the score to 221. James Sidaway (54) and C.Pearson (53) repaired the early damage supported by Ryan Spink's 32.

The double century total was surpassed by Stour's strong batting line up in the 39th over. Paceman James Winders anchored the 56 not out, the prolific young star Ben Mantom once again in the runs taking his score to 51, spinner James Wood showed his batting prowess hitting 69.

Stour got home four wickets down. Stour 2ndXI are placed third in second division of the Worcestershire league 31 points behind the leaders Pedmore.

HANLEY CASTLE & UPTON 1ST XI (24 POINTS)
118-0, STOURBRIDGE 3RDXI (0 POINT) 116,
HANLEY CASTLE UPTON WIN BY 148 RUNS

Stourbridge 3rdXI were up against Hanley Castle & Upton 1st XI and lost badly after being bowled out for 116 in the 39th over as skipper Daniel De Saules decided to bat first. Jordan Brooks (25) and 15-year-old Callum Litster (36) put up some resistance.

Barton Mathews helped himself to 3 wickets with the rest taking two apiece.

Opposition openers Rory Mathews (46) and Will St Leger-Chambers (70) needed no support to grab the 10 wicket victory in just 15 overs.

STOURBRIDGE 4TH XI (4 POINTS) 63 HANLEY
CASTLE AND UPTON 2ND XI (24 POINTS) 211
HANLEY CASTLE & UPTON WIN

Stour 4thXI took on Hanley & Upton second XI and suffered the same blow as their counterparts the 3rdXI. Fielding first skipper Alex Dent prised the bowling of under 16 year old Hiran Patel keeping an immaculate line and length.

Patel ended up with taking three wickets for 28 runs off 12 overs. Patel's effort did not stop the opposition scampering to 211 thanks to a tail ender's inning of 74 from Mark Arnott. Worse was to follow for the Stour youngsters as they were skittled out for 63 off 25 overs.

RUGBY

Rugby ladies back training

Stourbridge Ladies are back in training

Holiday season is well and truly over for Stourbridge Ladies Rugby Team who are back in training from Wednesday July 13.

Following a convincing win of the National Challenge Midlands 2 league, the team were promoted for the first time to National Challenge Midlands 1 finishing a credible fifth seeing off teams such as Oxford, Longton and Lutterworth.

Head Coach Bill Webb said "Last season was a huge learning curve for us and the experience gained puts us in a good position for the coming season."

Stourbridge take to the pitch at Stourton Park, Stourbridge for their first home match of the season on Saturday October 9 at 2.00pm against Worcester Ladies II.

New players are always welcome whether experienced or complete novices. Training takes place at 7pm Wednesday nights at Stourbridge Rugby Club, Stourton Park, Stourbridge.

Glassboys in friendly

Stourbridge Football Club welcomes npower League Two side Cheltenham Town to the War Memorial Athletic Ground on Tuesday July 12, kick-off 7.45pm.

The Robins are expected to bring their first team squad for this friendly match with their recent signing, Wordsley born Russell Penn, the former Kidderminster Harriers and Burton Albion midfielder included.

To encourage supporters to come along and enjoy a rare chance to see the Glassboys play a pre-season friendly at Amblecote, admission charges have been priced at £5 for adults and £3 senior citizens/juniors.

Children under 12 and accompanied by a paying adult will be admitted free.

A programme will also be on sale on the night.

The match will be sponsored by Mercedes Benz Commercial Vehicle dealer Mudie Bond, Kidderminster.

SPEEDWAY

Dudley sign up two new youngsters

Brendan Johnson

Adam Portwood

Table-topping Dudley have shuffled the pack with two new signings, writes Tim Hamblin.

Brendan Johnson and Adam Portwood – who was 16 last week – come in to replace injury victim Richard Franklin and reserve Danny Stoneman, who is being released.

Franklin has a torn knee ligament, an injury he exacerbated in the recent defeat at King's Lynn, said club chairman Nigel Pearson.

"He has been carrying the effects of it all season," added Pearson. "Doctors have advised him to have surgery immediately and he will be out of action for six weeks at least."

Nineteen-year-old Johnson forms one of speedway's more heart-warming stories. He suffered horrific injuries in a crash at the Isle of Wight in 2009 which left him in an induced coma on life-support systems. Yet a year later he was British under-18 champion!

Johnson, who reached the British under-21 final this season, switches from the Isle of Wight and will make his Heathers debut there against his old club last week.

Portwood finished third in last year's British under-15 championship and was signed by Mildenhall earlier this month only to lose his place when Aussie hotshot Cameron Heeps finally obtained clearance to ride in this country.

Heathers team boss Will Pottinger said: "Richard's injury is a blow. He was hoping to put the operation off until the end of the season."

"We have been very fortunate to have Brendan on board so quickly, we were thinking about him during the winter."

"The management also decided to cast an eye towards the future with Adam Portwood. We have to start looking at working with our own riders rather than trying to find riders from elsewhere."

"We wish Danny Stoneman all the very best and hope he gets fixed up as soon as possible."

BOXING

Aston has a polished start to his pro career

Ice-cool Ryan Aston cheered British fight fans at the biggest boxing show of the year in Hamburg at the weekend.

The Dudley middleweight continued a perfect start to his pro career with a four-round points win over Bulgarian Zuhari Muatchiev that came seven days after victory on his paid debut. Aston's win was the opening fight of the show topped by David Haye's heavyweight unification battle with Wladimir Klitschko and the Imtech Arena was slowly filling with fans when the Black Country prospect ducked between the ropes.

Aston, part of the Haymaker promotional stable, has much to look forward to. His next fight is pencilled in for Friday, September 23 at Tower Ballrooms in Edgbaston when the southpaw will be looking to build on a polished start to his professional career.
